

Lois Mae (Miske) Schnake

May 13, 1943 ~ October 16, 2020 (age 77)

Lois M. Schnake, age 77 of the Township of Matteson, passed away on Friday, October 16, 2020 at her home.

Lois Mae Schnake was born May 13, 1943 in Sheboygan, WI, daughter to the late Berthold & Eleonore (Rohde) Miske. She graduated from Plymouth High School in 1961 and worked as a secretary at Foremost Trucking in Adell, WI. Lois was united in marriage to Norman Paul Schnake on June 6, 1964 at Emmauel Lutheran Church also in Adell, WI. They moved to Clintonville where Lois cared for her family. In addition to her son, Luther, Lois and Norman cared for and became guardians of their nieces, Judy and Karen after the passing of their parents. Later, Lois worked at St. Martin School for many years as the head cook; she also managed her Tupperware sales business on the side. Lois was a member of St. Martin Lutheran Church, Clintonville for many years, serving in the choir as well as the Ladies Aid. She also worked in the bakery at the Wal-Mart store in Shawano for about 15 years until her retirement. In her younger years, she loved camping, fishing, and the family's yearly vacations to Canada. More recently, since Norman's passing in 2006, she enjoyed crafting, sewing, and quilting. Lois will be remembered as a caring, loving mother to all of her family.

Lois is survived by her:
